It has a paidup capital of fifty thousand dollars and a special guarantee fund accumulated which amounts at this time to about twelve thousand dollars. While the control of the company is in the hands of well-known residents of Vermont, it relies exclusively on western security in the matter of investment, and makes no loan which the managers can not ascertain by personal investigation to be secured beyond all enestion. Safety has been the first consideration. With this end in view the company will guarantee the payment of six, and in many cases seven, per cent interest to purchasers of its securities, believing that this is all that the safest line of investments and conservative management will warrant. The Farmers' Trust Company has negotiated about six hundred loans, secured on real estate. In each case investors have received their interest promptly and the principal at maturity. The company has acquired no land by foreclosure. These are facts which investors are invited to investigate. There is a vast difference in the way of putting a thing. For example, a certain lady, when asked by a doctor whom she had summoned to state her case, announced that she seemed to be "suffering from the prevailing influenza." Her worthy husband, who was similarly afflicted, told the doctor that he "had got that confounded horse distemper." By any other name 'twould doubtless smell as sweet.

The members of Brooks Post, G. A. R., have decided to hold a grand fair in Montpelier June 18, 19 and 20. The object of the undertaking is to raise funds for the erection of a Memorial hall, and the proceeds will be devoted to this purpose. Over three hundred presents are to be given away, in-cluding two cash gifts of $1,000 each, chamber set, parlor set, cooking range, buggy, Estey organ, riffe, etc., and miscellaneous cash presents, amounting to nearly $2,000. The total value of the presents is $5,615. R. Bagley is chairman of the committee of arrangements and all orders for tickets should be sent to him. The price of a sea-son ticket is one dollar. The entertainment to be given to patrons of the fair will be well worth the price of a season ticket, and the committee is determined that no effort shall be spared to make it a success in every particular.

A FEW gentleman, two or three ladies and a half dozen children straggled into the opera-house Friday evening to listen to the Ethiopian entertainment by the Guy Brothers. It was a poor house, the thinnest of the season, and the little colony of dead-heads and enthusiasts, under the shadow of the gallery, looked homesick and lonesome. The entertainment, on the contrary, was far better than many that have lonesome. The entertainment, on the contrary, was far better than many that have been inflicted on large audiences during the winter, and deserved more liberal patronage. The solos by G. R. and W. H. Guy, the base-ball march and clog and the exhibitions given by Edwin F. Guy, the jamper, and George Dauphin the contertionist, were first-class and received hearty applause from the diminute crowd of speciators. The entertainment concluded with a lively presentation of the farce "Ospres." If the family ever return to Montpelier they may count on a more numerous reception. count on a more numerous reception.

The supper given in Bethany chapel for the benefit of the public library, under the auspices of the Ladies' Library Guild, was a most pleasant and successful affair. Five tables were provided for the accommoda-tion of the hungry public, and each was liberally patronized during the time allotted for the feast. The tables were beautifully decorated with flowers and abundantly supplied with edibles. All present were unanimous in the yerdiet that the supper was "tip-top." The five tables were presided over by Mrs. W. A. Stowell and Mrs. M. M. Cutler, Mrs. S. L. Howe and Mrs. Albert Johnnott, Mrs. L. Bart Cross and Mrs. Albert Johnnott, Mrs. L. P. Gleason and Mrs. D. G. Kemp, Mrs. E. D. Hyde and Miss Ella Bailey. The candy table, which was stationed next to the door and provided with all sorts of "goodies," to tempt any remnants of the appetite that might be left an individual after disposing of the supper, was under the supervision of Mrs. J. REV. L. H. ELLIOT of Waterbury, agent of the Vermont Bible Society, gave an interesting address at Trinity church last Sunday morning on the work of the general Bible societies and of the Vermont branch in particular. This movement, said Mr. Elliot, began in England in 1802, with the organization of the British and foreign society. The Vermont branch was established in 1812. The object of the society is to circulate the Bible as widely as possible and place a copy in every home. The British and American societies placed in circuand place a copy in every home. The British and American societies placed in circulation in 1888 an average of nearly 19,000 copies for every working day. The average per day for the past forty years is over 10,000 copies. Mr. Elliot also stated some remarkable facts in regard to the percentage of church-goers in Vermont. Over oneage of church-goers in Vermont. Over one-half the population of the state, as shown by the last canvass, never go to church. In Montpelier thirty-eight per cent attend church, twenty-two per cent are found in some Sunday-school and the rest are not church-goers. In the canvass of the state that is being made by the agents of the society it has been found that in Rutland county one family in every eight, and in Grand Isle county one in every four, was without a copy of the Scriptures. Mr. Elliot spoke at the same church in the evening on "Methods of Bible Study."

Bethany Congregational church and society have extended a unanimous call to Rev. G. W. Gallagher of Keene, N. H., to become their pastor. Mr. Gallagher is a native of the state of New York. He graduated at Princeton College, N. J., and also from the Presbyterian Theological Seminary located there. He was ordained to the ministry in the Presbyterian church, and labored for several years in Ogden City, Utah, doing valuable service against Mormonism. He succeeded in establishing a thriving Presbyterian church and in securing for them a house of worship. Finding himself troubled with some doubts in regard to the doctrine of the Trinity, he frankly stated them to a presbytery in California, and came to New York with the purpose of entering the profession of the law, to which he had given some study before he entered the ministry. But not finding that profession congenial, and being still troubled with doubts in regard to the Trinity, at the suggestion of Dr. Bellows he consented to preach for a Unitarian church. This he did for a brief period in New York city and for three years in Keene, N. H. There the vital doctrines of the evangelical faith assumed new importance to him, and his doubts in regard to the Trinity began to disappear. Some of his people took exception to his strong and active advocacy of the temperance reform, and, in leaving, made a frank statement to his church of his views and preaching. Mr. Gallagher's preaching in Bethany church has been in heaving, made a frank statement to his church of his views and preaching.
